

AHRC Funded Network

History in the Humanities and Social Sciences

Richard Bourke (Cambridge) and Quentin Skinner (QMUL)

Programme

9:30–10:00 Coffee

10:00–11:45

Jennifer Pitts (Chicago), ‘The Uses of History in the Study of International Politics’.

Mira Siegelberg (QMUL), ‘International Theory and the Making of Modern International Order: Refugees in IR Theory and History’.

Chair: Emma Mackinnon (Cambridge).

11:45–12:00 Coffee Break

12:00–13:00

Susan James (Birkbeck), ‘Imagining the Boundary Between History and Philosophy’.

Chair: Richard Bourke (Cambridge).

13:00–14:30 Lunch

14:30–15:30

Hannah Dawson (KCL), ‘What Is A Woman? Feminism at the Intersection of Philosophy and History’.

Chair: Quentin Skinner (QMUL).

15:30–16:00 Coffee Break

16:00–17:45

Samuel Moyn (Yale), ‘History, Law, and the Rediscovery of Social Theory’

Michael Lobban (LSE) ‘Law and History, History and Law’.

Chair: Iza Hussin (Cambridge).

Date: Friday 5 July 2019, Time: 9:30–17:45

Venue: McCrum Lecture Theatre (Corpus), off Bennet Street, Cambridge.

#HHSS3